CACCN is your professional specialty nursing association. The Board and our membership are committed to supporting, promoting, and positioning the profession of registered critical care nurses in Canada.

The Association is governed by a seven (7) member volunteer Board of Directors who provide expertise, stewardship and direction to the activities and resources of the association.

The Board meets approximately 5 to 7 times annually: holding a two-day weekend meeting in the spring and in the fall in conjunction with our national conference. As well teleconference, video conference and email communications are key to a highly functioning Board of Directors.

Critical care nurses elected to the board are supported by the association with mentoring, collegiality, and travel expense reimbursement.

Directors of the CACCN (the Corporation) shall:

- have a willingness to serve on the Board of Directors.
- have a willingness to participate fully on the Board of Directors/Committees
- be a current/active voting member of the Association.
- be nominated by a current/active voting member of the Association.
- hold a valid registered nursing license in Canada.
- be no less than 18 years of age.
- be currently working in critical care.
