

1. Raising awareness for World Sepsis Day - Sept 13 - UBC Action on Sepsis presentation Sept 13, 1-2pm - register here

World Sepsis Day 2023
Research, Advocacy, and Clinical Care in BC and Worldwide

stop sepsis save lives

Richard Doll, PhD
Surviving sepsis: A patient partner's story

David Sweet, MD, FRCPC
History and success of sepsis quality improvement

Sybil Hoiss, RN, MSN
Future of sepsis quality improvement in BC

Graeme Koelwyn, MSc, PhD
Role of exercise in modulating immune response during post-sepsis recovery

Justine Behan, RN, MSc (A)
Smart Triage: Data-driven quality improvement and international partnerships

September 13, 2023
1:00 - 2:30 PM PDT
Djavad Mowafaghian
Centre for Brain Health

HQBC HEALTH QUALITY BC

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
Action on Sepsis
Research Excellence Cluster

BC CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

BC WOMEN'S HOSPITAL* HEALTH CENTRE

W

2. Critical Care BC is hosting the monthly CC Connect webinar Sept 28 at 07-08:00. Register here and join to hear about key activities for CCBC and a review of important research findings...come join the interdisciplinary CC community event!
3. Spring Innovation Roundtable recordings are now posted on our CACCNBC website. 2 more will be added shortly.
4. Fall Innovation Roundtable is scheduled for October 19, 1130-1330. Here is the info to join - please save the date on your calendar. Poster is coming soon :)
  - a. <https://phsa.zoom.us/j/64127366876?pwd=UnpEQTBXUUxFanZlaFVGQkdGd1F0UT09>
  - b. Meeting ID: 641 2736 6876 Password: 611912
  - c. Presentations:
    - i. VGH Regional Educators for MAiD will help us learn about new language around declaration of death
    - ii. Dr Kimia Ghavami from St Paul's will teach us the benefits of using TNK for Acute Ischemic Stroke
    - iii. Saemy Cho, a RN from St Paul's will share her experience as a new to CC RN going through the CC Education Pilot Project